We have, as you know, been getting tolerably fast in our suspiners at the West End. The present of foundation and success has witnessed a further development of foundation and the most fashionable elections. The young and unmaried sides do not take part in these to say great extent, the "frisky matrons" there reign, supreme. Although these assemblies, which are little, is a general rule, in the afternoon, at the houses of the members, are called "laddes" clubs," gentlemen are not or cluded A ticket to the "Scufflers" or "Jolly Dogs"—those are the names of two of the most fashionable—is reckned a great favor, and can only be obtained by those who are in high favor, with presiding authorities, among whom more than one duchess occupies a prominent position. The anuscements consist of conversation and smoking—the laddes doing their part manfully with the eigenrettes. To give you some idea of the freedom of manners which these reminess are intended to promote, I may state that the "Scufflers" are so called ucasses at their gatherings chairs and subtessay without saying for a moment that their, is anything wrong in these thing I can not conceal from mysoif that they tend to encourage a "loudress" of manner, to use an expressive slang phrase—which is now becoming very conspiceous among our upper ten. The civil an intentical have not taken the slightest notice, of these terrible rotes, and seem to jugard them as simply a skirnus; between the police and the negroes. It was certainly a very one sided skirnush is from the testimony no rosist move was mide, by the negroes after the first night. The cit's as have been advised to hold a meeting and demonate the comfact of the mot, but still they either neglect or refuse to do so. The papers of Memphis are as the root of the whole matter—lity have insated right and murder for months, and thus is only a legitimate result of their in flammatory and incending atteits, and those poor whites, between whom and the negroes a find has always existed, have been but their tools.
